PERSONIFIER

Meaning: A personifier is someone who attributes human qualities or characteristics to non-human entities or abstract concepts, often to evoke emotion or create vivid imagery.

1. The poet was a master personifier, bringing nature to life with her vivid descriptions.
2. In his speech, he acted as a personifier of hope, inspiring the audience with his words.
3. Children often use toys as personifiers, attributing human traits to their inanimate playthings.
4. The artist's latest sculpture serves as a personifier of freedom, capturing the essence of liberation.
5. Through her storytelling, she became a personifier of love, illustrating its many forms and complexities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/personifier