

PERSUADER

Meaning: PERSUADER: A person who influences others' beliefs, attitudes, or behaviors through reasoning or emotional appeal.

1. A skilled persuader can change minds even in the most challenging discussions.
2. In the world of sales, being a great persuader is often more valuable than the product itself.
3. Her ability to connect emotionally made her a natural persuader in negotiations.
4. The workshop focused on techniques to become a more effective persuader in various scenarios.
5. He was known as a master persuader, effortlessly convincing others to see his point of view.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/persuader>