

PERSUASIBLE

Meaning: Persuadable: capable of being convinced or influenced to change one's opinion or decision.

1. The negotiator found that the opposing party was surprisingly persuadable.
2. In discussions about climate change, some individuals are more persuadable than others.
3. She knew that his persuadable nature could be an asset during their campaign.
4. Effective leaders often tailor their arguments to appeal to persuadable audiences.
5. Her persuadable attitude allowed her to change her mind after hearing different perspectives.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/persuasible>