

PERSUASIVE

Meaning: PERSUASIVE: capable of convincing someone to believe or do something through reasoning or argument.

1. Her persuasive speech convinced the audience to support the new environmental initiative.
2. The advertising campaign was particularly persuasive, leading to a significant increase in sales.
3. He has a persuasive way of presenting his ideas that often sways even the most skeptical listeners.
4. Despite the opposition, her arguments remained both logical and persuasive throughout the debate.
5. The book is filled with persuasive techniques that can help anyone improve their communication skills.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/persuasive>