

PESTILENTIALLY

Meaning: PESTILENTIALLY: In a manner that is harmful, destructive, or likely to cause disease or moral corruption.

1. The air was pestilentially thick with the scent of decay as they walked through the abandoned village.
2. His pestilentially contagious laughter spread through the crowd, leaving everyone feeling uneasy.
3. The pests infested the crops pestilentially, threatening to ruin the entire harvest.
4. As the disease spread pestilentially through the region, the townsfolk began to fear for their lives.
5. They discussed the pestilentially toxic waste that had seeped into the river, endangering the entire ecosystem.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pestilentially>