

PESTILENTNESS

Meaning: Pestilentness refers to the quality of being harmful or destructive to health, often associated with disease or pollution.

1. The pestilentness of the air made it difficult for anyone to breathe comfortably in the crowded city.
2. Public health officials were alarmed by the pestilentness that emanated from the polluted river.
3. His persistent cough was a reminder of the pestilentness that seemed to linger in the old, abandoned building.
4. In times of war, the pestilentness of disease often claimed more lives than the battles themselves.
5. The researchers studied the pestilentness of various pathogens to develop more effective vaccines.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pestilentness>