

PETARD

Meaning: Petard: a small explosive device used in fireworks or military applications, designed to create a loud noise and often produce a visual display.

1. The loud bang of a petard echoed through the empty streets, startling the unsuspecting residents.
2. During the festival, the pyrotechnicians set off a petard that illuminated the night sky with colorful sparks.
3. In the old castle, tales were told of a petard that had once been used to breach the enemy's gates.
4. The mischievous children decided to create a small petard for their backyard fireworks display.
5. He carefully crafted a petard, ensuring it was safe and compliant with all local regulations before the celebration.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/petard>