

PETEREL

Meaning: A petrel is a seabird known for its ability to glide over the ocean's surface, often found in the Southern Hemisphere.

1. The petrel glided gracefully over the waves, searching for fish beneath the surface.
2. As the sun dipped below the horizon, a flock of petrels appeared, silhouetted against the fiery sky.
3. During our expedition, we were thrilled to spot a rare species of petrel nesting on the rocky cliffs.
4. The researchers studied the migration patterns of petrels to better understand their feeding habits.
5. With their distinctive calls and agile flight, petrels are a fascinating subject for ornithologists.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/peterel>