

PETRIFACTIVE

Meaning: Petrifactive refers to the process or ability to transform organic material into a stone-like substance through mineralization.

1. The archaeologists discovered petrifactive remains of ancient trees buried deep in the sediment.
2. In the lab, the scientists studied the petrifactive process that transformed organic materials into stone-like substances.
3. The petrifactive nature of the mineral-rich water in the region preserved the delicate features of the fallen leaves.
4. Her fascination with petrifactive fossils led her to pursue a career in paleontology.
5. The museum's exhibit showcased a variety of petrifactive specimens, illustrating the passage of time across millennia.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/petrifactive>