

PETRIFICATION

Meaning: Petrification is the process of turning organic material into stone or a state of being immobilized in shock or fear.

1. The ancient trees in the forest underwent petrification, transforming into beautiful stone sculptures over millennia.
2. Her face was a mask of petrification as she watched the shocking event unfold before her eyes.
3. The museum displayed various fossils, showcasing the remarkable process of petrification that preserved them for millions of years.
4. During the hike, we stumbled upon a site where rocks had formed through the petrification of once-living organisms.
5. Petrification can serve as a fascinating reminder of the Earth's history and the changes life can undergo over time.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/petrification>