

PETULANT

Meaning: Petulant: easily irritated or annoyed, often in a childish or sulky manner.

1. The petulant child threw a tantrum when he was told it was time for bed.
2. Her petulant remarks during the meeting made it difficult for anyone to take her seriously.
3. After a long day at work, he felt petulant and snapped at his colleagues over trivial matters.
4. The petulant behavior of the spoiled teenager frustrated her parents to no end.
5. Even the most patient teacher can find it challenging to deal with a petulant student.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/petulant>