

PEWFELLOW

Meaning: Pewfellow: a person seated next to another in a place of worship, particularly in a church, often implying a sense of camaraderie or shared experience.

1. The young artist felt a deep connection to his pewfellow, sharing their passion for creativity and expression.
2. During the gathering, she sat next to her pewfellow, exchanging stories and laughter throughout the evening.
3. As they prepared for the ceremony, each pewfellow received a small token of appreciation from the couple.
4. Their friendship blossomed as they found solace in their roles as pewfellows during the weekly service.
5. He often sought advice from his pewfellow, appreciating the wisdom that came from years of experience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pewfellow>