

PHIAL

Meaning: Phial: a small container or vial used for holding liquids, typically in a laboratory or pharmacy setting.

1. The apothecary carefully filled the phial with a bright blue elixir.
2. She reached for a delicate phial containing the rarest of spices.
3. As the scientist examined the ancient phial, he wondered about its original purpose.
4. He uncorked the phial, releasing a faint, floral aroma that filled the air.
5. The treasure chest was filled with gold coins, jewels, and a single glass phial.
6. The alchemist carefully filled the phial with a shimmering liquid.
7. She reached for the small phial containing the rare elixir.
8. After much searching, he finally uncovered the ancient phial buried in the sand.
9. The phial was expertly crafted, its glass shimmering in the candlelight.
10. With a steady hand, she poured the contents of the phial into the cauldron.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/phial>