

PHILOSOPHIZE

Meaning: To philosophize means to engage in the contemplation or discussion of fundamental questions regarding existence, knowledge, values, and meaning.

1. Some people enjoy sitting in coffee shops and philosophizing about the meaning of life.
2. During the debate, he began to philosophize about the nature of happiness and fulfillment.
3. She often likes to philosophize with her friends during long hikes in the mountains.
4. In his latest book, the author takes time to philosophize on the impact of technology on society.
5. Rather than arguing over facts, they preferred to philosophize about the implications of their beliefs.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/philosophize>