

PHLEGM

Meaning: Phlegm is a thick mucus secreted by the respiratory passages, especially during infections or allergic reactions.

1. The doctor explained that phlegm is a natural response to respiratory infections.
2. She noticed an increase in phlegm production during allergy season.
3. After catching a cold, he struggled to clear the thick phlegm from his throat.
4. The bright yellow color of her phlegm indicated a possible bacterial infection.
5. Drinking warm tea helped soothe her throat and thin the phlegm.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/phlegm>