

PHONOTYPIST

Meaning: A phonotypist is a person who types spoken words into written text, often using a specialized system of phonetic symbols.

1. The phonotypist meticulously arranged the type to ensure every character was perfectly aligned.
2. As a skilled phonotypist, she could transform spoken words into written text with incredible speed.
3. In the early days of printing, a phonotypist was essential for producing clear and accurate documents.
4. Many linguists appreciate the work of a phonotypist for its role in preserving dialects and accents.
5. During the transcription workshop, the phonotypist demonstrated how to represent complex sounds effectively.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/phonotypist>