

PHOSPHOR

Meaning: Phosphor is a substance that exhibits the property of luminescence, absorbing energy and re-emitting it as light, often used in applications such as displays and biological processes.

1. Phosphor plays a crucial role in energy transfer within living cells.
2. The glow of the phosphor in the screen made the colors appear vibrant and alive.
3. Researchers are exploring the use of phosphor-based materials in advanced lighting technologies.
4. In ancient times, people believed that phosphor could bring good luck and prosperity.
5. The discovery of new phosphor compounds could lead to more efficient solar panels.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/phosphor>