

PHOSPHORESCE

Meaning: To phosphoresce means to emit light without burning, typically after being energized by exposure to light.

1. Certain species of jellyfish can phosphoresce in dark waters, creating a mesmerizing glow.
2. The minerals in the rocks began to phosphoresce after being exposed to sunlight all day.
3. When disturbed, the plankton in the water seemed to phosphoresce, leaving a trail of sparkling light.
4. Scientists are studying how some fungi phosphoresce to understand their unique biochemical processes.
5. The beach was magical at night as the waves crashed, revealing phosphorescent algae that lit up the shore.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/phosphoresce>