

PHOSPHOROSCOPE

Meaning: A phosphoroscope is an instrument used to measure and analyze the luminescent properties and light emission of materials.

1. The scientist used a phosphoroscope to analyze the luminescent properties of the new material.
2. After extensive research, they developed a phosphoroscope that could measure light emission at unprecedented sensitivity.
3. In the laboratory, the phosphoroscope revealed unexpected phosphorescent behavior in the tested compounds.
4. The educational demonstration included a phosphoroscope to help students visualize the principles of fluorescence.
5. Using the phosphoroscope, researchers discovered that the duration of phosphorescence varied significantly among different substances.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/phosphoroscope>