

PHOTOCHEMICAL

Meaning: Photochemical refers to chemical reactions that are initiated or influenced by the absorption of light, particularly in processes like photosynthesis and the degradation of pollutants.

1. Photochemical reactions are essential in the process of photosynthesis.
2. The pollutant's photochemical breakdown can significantly reduce its environmental impact.
3. Scientists are studying the photochemical processes that occur in the atmosphere.
4. Understanding photochemical smog is crucial for improving urban air quality.
5. The development of photochemical sensors has advanced environmental monitoring techniques.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/photochemical>