

PHOTOMETRICIAN

Meaning: A photometrician is a professional who specializes in measuring and analyzing light, particularly in relation to illumination and photometric data.

1. The photometrician analyzed the data to determine the light distribution in the new LED design.
2. As a certified photometrician, she conducted experiments to ensure accurate measurements of lumens.
3. Employing advanced techniques, the photometrician was able to enhance the efficiency of the lighting system.
4. The role of a photometrician is crucial in developing products that meet stringent lighting standards.
5. Clients often rely on the expertise of a photometrician for their projects to achieve optimal illumination.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/photometrician>