

PHOTOPHONE

Meaning: Photophone: a device that transmits sound by modulating light waves, invented in the 19th century by Alexander Graham Bell.

1. The photophone was an early attempt to transmit sound using light waves.
2. In the 19th century, Alexander Graham Bell invented the photophone as a groundbreaking communication device.
3. Despite its novelty, the photophone struggled with practical applications due to environmental factors.
4. Modern fiber optic technology can be seen as a descendant of the principles behind the photophone.
5. Researchers are exploring new ways to utilize photophone technology in advanced communication systems.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/photophone>