

PHOTOPHONIC

Meaning: Photophonic refers to a technique or artistic element that combines light and sound to create an interactive or immersive sensory experience.

1. The artist's latest installation incorporates photophonic elements that create a captivating interplay of light and sound.
2. In the realm of experimental music, photophonic techniques are gaining popularity for their unique auditory experiences.
3. The photophonic display at the science museum mesmerizes visitors by transforming visual patterns into harmonies.
4. Researchers are exploring the potential of photophonic technology to enhance communication in various fields.
5. She described the concert as a photophonic journey, where every note was accompanied by dazzling visual effects.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/photophonic>