

PHOTOTRICHROMATIC

Meaning: Phototrichromatic refers to the ability of a substance to exhibit different colors or responses when exposed to varying wavelengths of light.

1. The research focused on the phototrichromatic properties of the new organic compound.
2. Scientists discovered that phototrichromatic responses could enhance solar energy conversion.
3. In their latest study, the team examined the phototrichromatic mechanisms in various plant species.
4. The phototrichromatic effect was particularly pronounced under specific lighting conditions.
5. Understanding phototrichromatic behavior could lead to advances in color-sensitive technologies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/phototrichromatic>