

PHOTOTROPISM

Meaning: Phototropism is the growth response of plants toward a light source.

1. Phototropism is the process by which plants grow toward a light source.
2. The sunflower exhibits remarkable phototropism, turning its head to follow the sun.
3. Understanding phototropism can help scientists develop better agricultural practices.
4. In a dark room, the phototropism of the seedlings becomes evident as they stretch toward the faint light.
5. Researchers are studying phototropism to uncover the mechanisms behind plant sensitivity to light.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/phototropism>