

PHYSIOGNOMER

Meaning: A physiognomer is a person who interprets character or predicts fate based on an individual's facial features and appearance.

1. The trained physiognomer could read a person's character simply by examining their facial features.
2. In ancient times, a physiognomer was often consulted to predict a person's fate based on their appearance.
3. She considered herself a physiognomer, believing that every wrinkle told a unique story.
4. The physiognomer claimed that subtle changes in expression reveal deeper emotional truths.
5. During the lecture, the physiognomer discussed the historical significance of facial analysis in various cultures.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/physiognomer>