

PICINE

Meaning: Picine: a small, tranquil body of water or pond, often found in natural settings, ideal for relaxation and recreation.

1. The picturesque village was nestled by a serene picine, offering a perfect retreat for nature lovers.
2. Children laughed and splashed around in the picine, their joy infectious on a sunny afternoon.
3. After the long hike, we took a refreshing dip in the cool waters of the picine nearby.
4. The garden was beautifully designed, with a small picine as its centerpiece, attracting many visitors.
5. She admired the way the sunlight danced on the surface of the picine, creating a magical atmosphere.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/picine>