

PICOID

Meaning: PICOID refers to a structural characteristic resembling a peak or pointed form, often observed in the fins of certain fish or the leaves of specific plants.

1. The researcher discovered a new species of fish that exhibited a picoid structure in its fins.
2. In botanical studies, picoid leaves often display unique adaptations to their environment.
3. The scientist presented a compelling theory on the evolutionary significance of picoid features in certain insects.
4. During the examination, the paleontologist noted the presence of picoid characteristics in the fossilized remains.
5. The designer drew inspiration from picoid shapes to create a stunning new line of contemporary furniture.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/picoid>