

PIDDLER

Meaning: Piddler: a person who engages in trivial or unproductive activities, often wasting time on minor tasks.

1. The old man was known as a piddler, often seen wasting hours on trivial tasks.
2. She called him a piddler because he would spend all day tinkering with gadgets instead of focusing on important projects.
3. In the world of serious business, a piddler can easily become a liability if they don't improve their time management.
4. Despite his talent, his reputation as a piddler made it hard for him to gain the trust of potential clients.
5. Rather than making significant progress, his tendency to piddle around left the team frustrated and behind schedule.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/piddler>