

PIDDLING

Meaning: Piddling refers to engaging in trivial or unproductive activities that yield little to no significant results.

1. He spent the afternoon piddling around in the garden, not really accomplishing much.
2. She found herself piddling with her phone instead of focusing on her homework.
3. The children were piddling in the backyard, enjoying the sunshine without a care in the world.
4. Despite the looming deadline, he was piddling away his time watching TV.
5. Piddling conversations filled the room as guests mingled before the main event.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/piddling>