

PIEND

Meaning: 'Piend' refers to a structural or artistic element that combines aspects of nature and geometry, often serving as a focal point in design.

1. The artist's latest installation features a piend that draws inspiration from both nature and geometry.
2. In traditional architecture, the piend often serves as a visual focal point in the design.
3. She marveled at the intricate piend, which added a unique character to the otherwise simple room.
4. During his studies, he discovered that piends are often overlooked yet play a crucial role in structural integrity.
5. The museum hosted a workshop on how to create stunning piends using various materials and techniques.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/piend>