

PIERID

Meaning: Pierid (noun): a member of the family Pieridae, which includes butterflies commonly characterized by predominantly white or yellow wings.

1. The pierid butterflies are known for their striking white and yellow colors.
2. Ecologists study the migration patterns of the pierid species to understand climate change effects.
3. In the garden, a pierid fluttered gracefully among the blooming flowers.
4. Her fascination with pierid butterflies began when she spotted one in her backyard.
5. The pierid family of butterflies is diverse, with many species found across different continents.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pierid>