

PIETIST

Meaning: A pietist is a person who emphasizes personal faith, heartfelt devotion, and moral living in their relationship with God, often associated with the Pietist movement in Christianity.

1. The pietist movement emphasized a heartfelt and personal relationship with God.
2. Her upbringing in a pietist community instilled in her a deep sense of moral responsibility.
3. Many pietists focused on inner spirituality rather than external rituals and dogma.
4. The church's pietist roots encouraged members to engage in charitable acts and community service.
5. He was often regarded as a pietist due to his fervent devotion and emphasis on personal piety.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pietist>