

PIFFLE

Meaning: Piffle refers to meaningless or nonsensical talk or ideas that lack value or substance.

1. The professor dismissed the student's argument as pure piffle.
2. After reading the article, I couldn't help but think it was filled with piffle rather than substantial research.
3. His speech was so full of piffle that it left the audience more confused than informed.
4. She rolled her eyes at the politician's piffle, knowing he was avoiding the real issues.
5. Despite its popularity, I found the movie to be a collection of piffle with no real plot.
6. His explanation was nothing but a load of piffle, lacking any real substance.
7. She dismissed the rumors as mere piffle, unworthy of her time and attention.
8. The professor's lecture was filled with so much piffle that it was hard to stay awake.
9. It's hard to take him seriously when he often spouts such piffle during discussions.
10. They laughed at the piffle he tried to pass off as serious advice.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/piffle>