

PIG-JAWED

Meaning: Pig-jawed refers to having a prominent or protruding jaw, often giving a rugged or coarse appearance.

1. The artist captured the pig-jawed figure of the old farmer with remarkable detail.
2. Despite his pig-jawed appearance, he had a heart of gold and was loved by everyone in the village.
3. The character in the novel was described as pig-jawed, with a prominent jaw and a rough exterior.
4. In the wrestling match, the pig-jawed contender surprised everyone with his agility and speed.
5. Her pig-jawed grin made it clear that she was up to something mischievous.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pig-jawed>