PILFER

Meaning: To pilfer means to steal things of little value, often in a sneaky or petty manner.

1. He was caught trying to pilfer small items from the store.
2. The company's security system was installed to prevent employees from pilfering office supplies.
3. She felt guilty after realizing she had pilfered a few cookies from the jar without asking.
4. The thief managed to pilfer several valuable paintings before escaping unnoticed.
5. During the investigation, it became clear that he had been pilfering from the charity for months.
6. The thief managed to pilfer several valuable items from the store without being noticed.
7. She used her charm to pilfer secrets from her colleagues during casual conversations.
8. The stray cat would often pilfer food from the neighbors' gardens.
9. It was surprising to discover that he had been pilfering small amounts of money from the cash register.
10. During the chaotic festival, pickpockets would pilfer wallets from unsuspecting tourists.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pilfer