

PIMP

Meaning: A pimp is a person, typically a man, who manages and profits from the sexual services of prostitutes, often characterized by a flamboyant lifestyle and involvement in illegal activities.

1. He was known in the neighborhood as a smooth-talking pimp who always wore flashy clothes.
2. The movie portrayed the life of a pimp struggling to escape the violent world he was a part of.
3. After years of hardship, she decided to leave her life as a pimp to pursue her passion for art.
4. The documentary explored the challenges faced by women who fell under the influence of a pimp.
5. In the underground scene, he earned a reputation as a ruthless pimp who controlled his territory with an iron fist.
6. He decided to leave his old life behind and become a legitimate businessman instead of a pimp.
7. The movie portrayed the gritty reality of life on the streets, focusing on the struggles of a young woman trying to escape the grasp of a ruthless pimp.
8. With a flashy suit and an extravagant car, he thought of himself as a modern-day pimp, always looking for his next big score.
9. The documentary shed light on the exploitation faced by many individuals trapped under the control of a pimp.
10. Despite his tough exterior, he had a soft spot for the young woman he rescued from the life of a pimp.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pimp>