

PIMPLY

Meaning: PIMPLY (adjective): characterized by small, raised bumps or spots on the skin, often associated with acne or blemishes.

1. The teenager was self-conscious about the pimply skin that marred his otherwise bright complexion.
2. After trying numerous skincare products, she finally found one that helped clear her pimply breakout.
3. He noticed a few pimply bumps on his forehead after indulging in too much junk food.
4. The dermatologist explained that hormonal changes could often lead to a more pimply appearance during adolescence.
5. Despite being pimply, she embraced her skin and focused on her confidence rather than her complexion.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pimply>