

PINCHPENNY

Meaning: Pinchpenny (noun): a person who is excessively frugal or stingy, often to the detriment of their own comfort or quality of life.

1. My uncle is such a pinchpenny that he refuses to buy anything unless it's on sale.
2. She lived in a small, rundown apartment because her pinchpenny habits prevented her from spending on anything luxurious.
3. Despite his high-paying job, his pinchpenny nature often left him eating instant noodles for dinner.
4. It's hard to enjoy a night out with someone who's a pinchpenny; they always find a reason to cut costs.
5. Her pinchpenny ways became a running joke among her friends, who teased her about her thriftiness.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pinchpenny>