

PINCOFFIN

Meaning: A pincoffin is a small, ornate container designed to hold and display delicate items, often associated with preserving the beauty of natural specimens or protecting the soul in folklore.

1. The artist crafted an intricate pincoffin to showcase the delicate beauty of the butterfly inside.
2. In folklore, the pincoffin is said to protect the soul of the departed during their journey.
3. She discovered a vintage pincoffin at the antique shop, sparking her curiosity about its history.
4. The pincoffin's unique design made it a standout piece at the local crafts fair.
5. He carefully placed the pincoffin on the shelf, a symbol of remembrance for his late grandmother.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pincoffin>