

PINNATIFID

Meaning: Pinnatifid refers to a type of leaf that is deeply lobed or divided, resembling a feather in shape.

1. The unique shape of the pinnatifid leaves added an exotic touch to the garden.
2. Botanists often study pinnatifid plants to understand their adaptation to different environments.
3. The artist was inspired by the intricate patterns of the pinnatifid ferns in the forest.
4. During the hike, we discovered a rare species of pinnatifid wildflower blooming along the trail.
5. The pinnatifid structure of the leaf allows for better light absorption in shaded areas.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pinnatifid>