

PIPE-LINE

Meaning: PIPELINE (noun): A system of pipes used to transport liquids or gases over long distances.

1. The new oil pipeline has significantly reduced transportation costs for the company.
2. Environmentalists are concerned about the impact of the proposed pipeline on local wildlife.
3. Construction of the natural gas pipeline is expected to begin next month in several key areas.
4. The project manager outlined the steps necessary to ensure the pipeline was built safely and efficiently.
5. Investors are closely watching the developments surrounding the pipeline as it could affect market prices.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pipe-line>