

PIPED

Meaning: PIPED (verb): To produce a sound or music, especially by blowing air through a musical instrument or to speak or express oneself in a lively or spirited manner.

1. The musician piped a joyful tune on his flute at the festival.
2. The children piped up with excitement when they saw the parade.
3. As the steam escaped, the old kettle piped loudly on the stove.
4. She piped the icing onto the cake with precision and care.
5. The ancient pipes in the building had long since piped their last note.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/piped>