

PIQUANT

Meaning: Piquant: having a pleasantly sharp taste or stimulating quality, often used to describe flavors or wit that provoke interest or excitement.

1. The chef's piquant sauce added a delightful kick to the otherwise bland dish.
2. Her piquant wit often caught her friends off guard during conversations.
3. The piquant aroma of the spices filled the kitchen, making everyone hungry.
4. He enjoyed the piquant flavor of the salsa, which was perfectly balanced with the sweetness of the fruit.
5. Despite its small size, the piquant pepper packed a serious punch in terms of heat.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/piquant>