

PISCICULTURE

Meaning: Pisciculture is the cultivation of fish in controlled environments for commercial purposes or ecological sustainability.

1. Pisciculture has become an essential practice for meeting the growing global demand for fish.
2. Many coastal communities rely on pisciculture to sustain their livelihoods and preserve marine ecosystems.
3. Innovations in pisciculture techniques have significantly improved fish health and production efficiency.
4. The environmental impact of pisciculture can be mitigated through sustainable farming practices and responsible management.
5. Educational programs on pisciculture are vital for promoting sustainable aquaculture and protecting aquatic biodiversity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pisciculture>