

PITCH-DARK

Meaning: Pitch-dark refers to an extremely dark environment with no light, making visibility nearly impossible.

1. The cave was pitch-dark, making it impossible to see even a hand in front of my face.
2. As night fell, the forest became pitch-dark, enveloping us in an eerie silence.
3. She stepped into the pitch-dark room, her heart racing with uncertainty.
4. The pitch-dark sky was filled with stars that shimmered brightly against the blackness.
5. In the pitch-dark depths of the ocean, strange creatures glowed with an otherworldly light.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pitch-dark>