

PITCH

Meaning: Pitch (noun): a presentation or proposal designed to persuade an audience, often used in sales or investment contexts.

1. The sales team worked late into the night to perfect their pitch for the new product.
2. Her voice was strong and confident as she delivered the pitch to potential investors.
3. He had to adjust the angle of his baseball pitch to avoid the batter's swing.
4. The scenery was breathtaking as they stood at the pitch of the hill, overlooking the valley.
5. After weeks of preparation, she finally felt ready to pitch her idea to the board.
6. The athlete's pitch during the game was impeccable, showcasing both strength and strategy.
7. She delivered a compelling pitch to the investors, hoping to secure funding for her startup.
8. As the sun set, the children played on the grassy pitch, their laughter echoing in the evening air.
9. He was asked to pitch his idea to the board, which could change the direction of the company.
10. The sales team practiced their pitch relentlessly to ensure they could win over potential clients.
11. The sales team prepared an impressive pitch to attract new investors.
12. He threw the baseball with a perfect pitch, making it hard for the batter to connect.
13. During the meeting, she delivered a compelling pitch that captivated everyone's attention.
14. The musician adjusted the pitch of her guitar before the concert started.
15. After weeks of planning, they finally settled on a pitch for their new startup idea.
16. The soccer player launched the ball with a powerful pitch that sent it soaring into the net.
17. She gave an impressive pitch to the investors, highlighting the potential growth of her startup.
18. At dusk, the sound of crickets filled the air, creating a soothing pitch that accompanied the setting sun.
19. The artist decided to pitch his canvas at a steep angle to capture the dramatic skyline.
20. They organized a community event to clean up the local park and enhance its natural beauty.
21. The salesman delivered an impressive pitch that captivated the entire audience.

22. She decided to pitch her idea to the investors during the meeting next week.
 23. The baseball player threw a perfect pitch that struck out the batter.
 24. As the sun set, the campers set up their tents on a slight pitch overlooking the lake.
 25. He had to adjust the pitch of his voice to resonate better with the crowd.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pitch>