

PITHLESS

Meaning: PITHLESS: lacking substance, vigor, or significance; insipid.

1. The pithless argument left the audience feeling unengaged and uninterested.
2. His pithless remarks during the debate did little to sway public opinion.
3. Despite the beautiful setting, the conversation felt pithless and lacking depth.
4. The novel was well-written but ultimately pithless, failing to leave a lasting impression.
5. She was frustrated by the pithless responses from her colleagues during the brainstorming session.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pithless>