

PLACEMAN

Meaning: Placeman: a person who is appointed to a position of power or influence primarily due to connections rather than merit or qualifications.

1. The placeman was appointed due to his connections rather than his qualifications.
2. In the world of politics, a placeman often holds a position of power without true merit.
3. Many criticized the government for filling key roles with placemen instead of skilled professionals.
4. The placeman's influence was evident as he maneuvered through the ranks with ease.
5. Despite his title, the placeman struggled to gain the respect of his colleagues.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/placeman>