

PLAGUEFUL

Meaning: Plagueful: characterized by or resembling a widespread and detrimental influence, often causing distress or harm.

1. The continued neglect of public health measures led to a plagueful spread of misinformation.
2. Her writings were filled with a plagueful tone, reflecting the despair of the times.
3. The city was haunted by a plagueful atmosphere, as fear and uncertainty loomed over its inhabitants.
4. In the depths of the forest, he stumbled upon a plagueful site, remnants of a once-thriving community.
5. The documentary shed light on the plagueful conditions faced by those living in poverty-stricken areas.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/plagueful>